Special Features

The Department of Guru Nanak Studies was set up in 1971 in accordance with the provisions of the Article IV of Guru Nanak Dev University Act, 1969 as follows:

To make provision for study and research on the Life and Teachings of Guru Nanak Dev and their cultural and religious impact in the context of Indian and World Civilizations.

The Department of Guru Nanak Studies is an inter-disciplinary department with its main focus on Sikh Studies and Comparative Study of Religion. The department offers two Post Graduate Courses in Religious Studies and Philosophy and M.Phil. Course in the subject of Religious Studies. Besides teaching, research guidance is provided to regular as well as part-time students pursuing for their Ph.D. The U.G.C has sanctioned grant of 60 lacs for the department under DRS-II (Special Assistance Programme) for the next five years. Journal of Sikh Studies, a refereed journal of international repute has been a regular feature of the department since 1974. A new Journal Dharam AdhyanPatrika (Punjabi) has been started from 2012. National and International Seminars and Conferences are organized by the department for dissemination of research activities on the Sikh Studies and allied fields in the wider perspective.

Candidates admitted in M.A.Philosophy, M.A. Religious Studies and M.Phil.(Religious Studies) will be exempted of tuition fees.
